Cerebellar Cognitive Affective Syndrome

Presenter: Jason Caplan, MD

Date: Thursday, January 10, 2013

Time: 5:00—6:00 PM

Location: Valley Hospital Ballroom

Target Audience
Psychiatrists, Behavioral Health Care Professionals, Primary Care Physicians, Specialists, Residents, Allied Health Professionals, Nurses, Pharmacists, and Medical Students

Session Objectives

- Identify the role of cerebellum in coordinating cognition, affect, and executive functioning
- Describe the mechanisms of cerebellar injury and how they may impact patient functioning

Overall Series Objectives

- Discuss basic and updated information regarding a variety of psychiatric topics
- Explain the updated methods of treatment of various psychiatric disorders
- Recognize applicable relevant research regarding coherent approaches to psychiatric diagnosis and treatment
- Utilize current and emerging evidence to develop a treatment strategy for patients with psychiatric disorders

Accreditation

St. Joseph’s Hospital and Medical Center (SJHMC) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

St. Joseph’s Hospital and Medical Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Policy

It is the policy of St. Joseph’s Hospital and Medical Center; The Office for Continuing Medical Education to insure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all SJHMC sponsored educational programs. All those in control of content are expected to disclose any and all financial relationships or affiliations with commercial interests.

The information presented at this CME program represents the views and opinions of the individual presenters, and does not constitute the opinion or endorsement of, or promotion by, St. Joseph’s Hospital and Medical Center or its affiliates. A attendee must always use his/her own personal and professional judgment when considering further application of this information, particularly as it may relate to patient diagnostic or treatment decisions including, without limitation, FDA-approved uses and any off-label uses.

Disclosure Summary

The following faculty and planning committee members disclosed that they have no relationships with any commercial interest:

- Lance Rouse, M.D.
- Aaron Wilson, M.D.
- Coordinator: Crystal Moody

The following presenter and planning committee member disclosed relationships with commercial interests:

- Jason Caplan, M.D. : Speaker’s Bureau and Major Stockholder: Avanir Pharmaceuticals